Introduction

The family link to the Cue family is through the marriage of Elizabeth Pope (1801-1866) to Thomas Roby Cue (1795-1866) in 1821.

My research covers most all Births/Baptisms up to about 1901, however the information provided is not exhaustive but I open that it will prove useful

Thomas Cue	Was taken prisoner by the Confederates at Harper's Ferry but soon exchanged Took part in the battles of Knoxville, Atlanta and Nashville Was married during the Civil War while on furlough to Illinois After the war he farmed for 5 or 6 years in Illinois Occupations: Farmed for a short time in Kansas, a Clerk, Constable and justice of the Piece Information sourced from the Crawford County Biographies 1893, lagenweb.org/Crawford/1893biocdef.html Information from Lester Glenn Cue's memories In 1871 Joseph Cue with his family came to Willow Twp., Crawford Co., IA and bought land for $2.50 per acre. He improved it some as he could. Nearly lost it because of hard times, no money, and no value for his crops. He eventually got started and obtained more land; he gave each of his children 80 acres. After Susanna died, he lived for a short time with the two youngest children; he retired in 1903; he moved to Wichita, Kansas. He married a Wichita lady, she led him a merry chase, trimmed his sails a bit and dumped him. (description by Lester Cue) Joseph was a member of the Church of England.
